

Something Blue

a film by Sean Gannon

attn: S. Gannon
11725 Palms Blvd #3
Los Angeles, CA 90066

tel 310-313-3761
sean@somethingbluefilm.com
www.somethingbluefilm.com

Awards

Best Picture

Best Produced Screenplay

IMPA Awards—May, 2010

The Iowa Motion Picture Awards (“Iowa’s Oscars”), were held at the Top of the Tower in downtown Des Moines, IA

Other honors: Award of Achievement—Best Direction
 Award of Achievement—Best Editing

Screenings

Denver Film Festival

November, 2009; Denver, CO

World Premiere, two screenings. The film’s promotional still was displayed next to Denver Metromix’s front-page headline on the festival; the film was listed first in its article, “Denver Film Festival Favorites; 50 reasons why you can’t miss the Starz Denver Film Festival.”

Drake Alumni Sneak-Preview Screening

February, 2010; Chicago, IL

Drake University honored filmmaker Sean Gannon and other Drake alumni, including featured players, with a preview of the first 20 minutes of the film, followed by a Q&A. Drake promoted and catered the event, renting the opulent screening room of theWit Hotel downtown for the screening.

Cedar Rapids Film Festival

April, 2010; Cedar Rapids, IA

Varsity Theater

April, 2010; Des Moines, IA

Central Iowa Premiere, two screenings. Drake co-sponsored a free matinee for Drake students, followed by a Q&A with Gannon, his co-producer Pat Boddy and casting director William Coleman, a retired 30-year professor at the university.

The public screening in the evening saw crowds stretching for two blocks, almost filling the 450-seat theater and delaying the start of the film for 15 minutes.

Landlocked Film Festival

August, 2010; Iowa City, IA

The film screened opening night of the festival, followed by a Q&A with Gannon